TOPICAL JOKES

1. Keith Urban and Nicole Kidman have split, leaving their 3 collective fans very upset.
2. And he has reportedly already moved on by cancelling his AMC A list subscription.
3. The custody agreement allows him only 56 days with the son. Same deal if you live in Seattle.

4. We are in a government shutdown because of disagreements about spending. Most people would just call this marriage
ALT: Have we tried putting them in a giant get along shirt [image: congress in big shirt]
5. Vance says he is in private talks with Senate Democrats to end the government shutdown. It's okay to admit you're kissing.
6. Scientists say there is a 4% chance an asteroid is headed toward the moon. Republicans hope the other 96% is headed towards innocent immigrants and children without healthcare.
7. Scientists are thinking of nuking the asteroid. I'm not sure a microwave is going to help in this situation.
8. They are also considering using a contraption like a dart to knock it out of the air. In related news, a bunch of 40 year olds from the nearest dive bar are now working at NASA.
9. The incredible Jane Goodall died today. Doing the two things DJT hates most: Inspiring young women and being in California.
10. Many former ABC employees are urging Disney's CEO to not be silenced. Difficult considering the evil sea witch and the legs he really wants.
11. Hollywood is fuming over the newest technology advancement: an AI actress. When asked for a comment she said "1001001001" and then drained the earth of water.
